

Preface

It was during a revival (1955) at the Assembly of God in Mountain Home, Idaho, that my wife (Hilda) and I accepted Christ as Savior and began this wonderful Christian journey. Some five months later I was transferred to England (Air Force). And it was there, while involved in a local Bible Study and a correspondence Bible Course, that I fell in love with Bible prophecy.

Afterwards, after serving almost eleven years in the military, God called me to preach. So, I left the Air Force, moved to a small town in southern Arizona (at God's direction), and pioneered a new church. It was a wonderful experience. Undoubtedly, it was a three-year pastorate we will never forget. During our stay there, the mid-week Bible Studies were often filled with questions concerning Revelation and the end-time.

It was later, while pastoring the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Glendale, Arizona, that I first endeavored to actually teach the Book of Revelation. Too, it was there that I compiled the bulk of these 'notes'.

And the next fifty years (1964-2014) given to discussing and teaching Bible prophecy, have been a real joy and delight. In fact, it continues to be an exciting subject.

A 'special thanks' to all those that have had a part. May God's abundant blessings be yours as you continue on to know the Lord and His prophetic word in a greater measure.

Reverend Glen Jones